CIRCULAR

Ministry of Rural Development (MHRD), Government of India has announced The month-long campaign titled, “Nai Chetna 2.0-Pahal Badlav Ki” with the theme of ‘Advancing the agency and rights of women and gender diverse individuals of intersectional identities by addressing structural barriers for a life without fear, discrimination and violation based on gender ’ will be conducted as a 'Jan Andolan' (people's movement) in all the States/UTs of the country from 25th November to 22nd of December, 2023.

1. The 'Nai Chetna' campaign is launched by the Ministry of Rural Development and involves sensitizing women, especially in rural areas. It seeks to enable women to acknowledge, prepare, and take support in situations of comprise.
2. The 'Nai Chetna' campaign focuses on women.
3. Women in rural areas are unaware of the various mechanisms available to raise their concerns.
4. The campaign has an idea to bring the issue of gender-based violence into focus and make women aware of their rights and the mechanism available to help redress their grievances.

All DIETs Government and Private along with B.Ed Division SCERT are requested to conduct the activities attached at ANNEXURE-A to address gender-based violence. Through such interactive activities participants will be made aware about gender related issues and how to tackle it. This campaign will be conducted by students & teachers from the TEIs and external experts in the field. The campaign will help bring in positive changes in the educational dynamics and help protect students from Gender Based Violence (GBV) violations.

We believe that by conducting these activities, we can create a safe and inclusive environment for everyone in our TEIs.
