Subject: Online Training Programme for all teachers of DoE, NDMC, MCD & Private schools on DIKSHA Delhi portal “LEAD” Titled: “Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (Amendment), Act, 2019”

The State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT), Delhi, is proud to announce the launch of a new training program on the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act. This training is available on the DIKSHA platform and is designed specifically for teachers across Delhi, including those from the Directorate of Education, NDMC, MCD, and private schools.

This program aims to equip educators with essential knowledge and skills related to the POCSO Act, ensuring a safe and supportive environment for students. The training covers critical aspects of the Act, including legal provisions, reporting mechanisms, and the role of educators in safeguarding children.

All teachers are encouraged to participate in this training to enhance their understanding of child protection laws and practices. The course is accessible online, offering flexibility for educators to complete it at their convenience.

This training has been provisioned on DIKSHA-LEAD platform for all teachers of Delhi.
