Subject: Two-Day Training Programme for Nodal Teachers of Science of Living Programme Of Directorate of Education, GNCT, Delhi

The Science of Living Programme is a holistic, character-centered educational initiative of the Directorate of Education, GNCT of Delhi, designed to integrate self-awareness, emotional well-being, ethical values, resilience, and social responsibility into the everyday learning experiences of students from Kindergarten (KG) to Grade 12.

SCERT, Delhi is conducting a Two-Day Training Programme for Nodal Teachers who will be instrumental in cascading the programme to teachers at various levels.

Objectives:

To build a deep understanding of the key concepts, pedagogical approaches, and goals of the programme among nodal teachers, enabling them to act as resource persons for further school-level dissemination.

To equip nodal teachers with facilitation strategies, activity-based learning techniques, and assessment tools essential for implementing the programme effectively across different school stages.

All Heads of Schools are requested to nominate two Nodal Teachers for the Science of Living Programme — one for the Foundational and Preparatory Stage (Classes K.G. to V) and one for the Middle and Secondary Stage (Classes VI to XII).

Only the nominated teachers will be permitted to attend the training as per the scheduled dates.
